

SOCIETY

Society was interested in the production of "Said Pasha" and lent its presence in large numbers at both performances. On the opening night a box party was given by Prince and Princess Kawananakoa, and last evening Dr. and Mrs. F. Howard Humphris entertained a party in one of the boxes. After the performance last evening the Alexander Young Hotel supper room was invaded by the principals of the "Said Pasha" company and by a number of supper parties, the jolly crowd also enjoying the music of the Ellis quintet club. One large table, with covers for twenty, guests was devoted to the "Said Pasha" people, and a supper party was given by Prince and Princess Kawananakoa with covers for nine. Mr. T. A. Hays was also at a table where he entertained a party of six.

Now that the Myrtles are through with their benefit, the Hawaii Yacht Club is to the fore with Allan Dunn's production of Charley's Aunt. As will be remembered the performance was postponed on the very morning of the day set for the same through sad news received by one of its leading actors. In order not to interfere in any way with the Myrtle benefit the Yacht club put off the idea of a short postponement of one week and placed the dates for Thursday week, September 29, and Saturday, October 1.

Most of the seats sold for the original performance have been retained by the buyers and there will doubtless be a bumper house. The play is exceedingly funny, most people who have seen it acclaim it the funniest of their experience, the players are clever, the management experienced and the cause a worthy one. The Yacht club needs the money. Aside from the zest added to Regatta Day by the sight of the white winged craft skimming over the harbor, yachting has always been a popular sport and the club has given several successful and long remembered dances at its Peninsula Club House. It is to reduce the debt on the building that constitutes the prime action of the coming benefit performances of which the Hawaii Yacht Club receives the whole income from theater and advertising program less a small percentage on the theater receipts which goes to Mr. Dunn who has also given a low guarantee of an expense limit and financed all necessary outlay.

The part which was to have been taken by Mr. Arthur Mackintosh has been filled by Mr. Warren, a recent graduate of Berkeley, where he took prominent parts in collegiate theatrical productions. He is a clever actor and after this first appearance will undoubtedly be in great demand. Warren Paymaster Brown and Allan Dunn will constitute a comedy trio whose work will be doubtless appreciated to the full. Mr. Brown is no novice at theatricals as many Pacific Coast audiences have delightedly attested.

The patronesses of the affair are taking great interest in the event and are determined to see a tidy sum handed over to the yachtmen's coffer as the postponement was a costly though unavoidable event. The scene settings are going to be revelations in amateur productions the postponement being devoted to extra details of production.

The fair to be given by the Woman's Guild of St. Andrew's, Saturday, Oct. 15th, promises to be a great success.

The executive committee, under the able management of Mrs. E. D. Tenny, is hard at work making extensive preparations. There will be many booths where useful and beautiful Christmas gifts can be bought. But the principal feature is to be the cold lunch served at noon for the benefit of the business men, where a delicious menu, prepared entirely in the homes of the Guild members will be served by a bevy of Honolulu's prettiest maidens.

The mystery booth for the children, the home made candy booth and the crepe paper booth are among the many other attractions.

Mrs. Grace Pierpont Haven left this week for Kailua, N. Kona, Hawaii, where she will teach in the Kona orphanage. Mrs. Haven will be much missed in church and social circles in San Jose, says the Mercury. She was a prominent member of the Monday club, and has a host of loving friends who wish her all success in her new life.

Referring to Miss Eleanor Terry, daughter of Rear Admiral Silas W. Terry, U. S. N., Washington Life says: "Before going to their present station at Honolulu, the Terrys lived at the Washington Navy Yard. The admiral's retirement from active service in December will bring back to Washington the admiral and Mrs. Terry and their fascinating daughter. Miss Eleanor Terry is very tall, very slender, very brunette, has a lithe and graceful walk, and is daintily witty of speech."

Theodore Wores was made a life member of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco at the high jinks held recently in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Several launch parties comprising a number of society people took in the Regatta Day events, viewing them from launches, the boat houses and steamer decks. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenny, Mrs. Helen Noonan and Miss Jennie Giffard formed one group. Mr.

Governor Bachelier, of New Hampshire, dislikes tramps, though at times he will hand a quarter to one of the traveling fraternity. Not long ago he found a husky young hobo lying under a tree at a lonely place in the country. The governor listened to the old hard-luck story, and gave the tramp some small change. Then he said, encouragingly: "Down there on the left, my friend, there is a farmer who wants men to help him thresh wheat." "Thankee, sir," said the tramp, turning to the right; "thankee, I might have gone down that way accidental like."

It is the only make that can boast of the REMOVABLE ICE COMPARTMENT.

Have you ever thought that this claim is the secret and success of constructing a cleanable, pure and germ-proof refrigerator? For years it was conceded that the non-removable ice compartment was an ideal culture farm for germs. Now no fear need be entertained for this great menace to health. None, other than the GURNEY, has the REMOVABLE ICE COMPARTMENT.
